

The KL anchor explains none of the gain at $\beta = 0$ the anchor is switched off entirely, and the gain over vanilla is unchanged point-mass, centroid $E=0$, 8 seeds. Frozen beats vanilla at every β including zero ($p = 0.000$); live is below frozen at every β ($p \leq 0.010$).